

NEWS FROM NEW-JERSEY.

JERSEY CITY.
Sheriff McPhillips, who is now in Boston, made out a list before his departure of the names of citizens who will compose the Grand Jury for the April term. His orders were that the names should not be made public until next Saturday morning, but some of the citizens who have been summoned to serve have, naturally, spoken of the fact to their friends. Thus it became known about town yesterday that the following men were on the list as members of the next jury: E. F. G. Young, president of the First National Bank; Collier and John J. Taffey, May & Octavia Cleveland; Charles Phillips, Dr. Morgan, W. C. P. Parker, Dr. McHorten, Dr. H. F. Cook, Dr. Edward W. Clark, David W. Lawrence and James C. Clark.

Edward Hicks, of No. 2 Chestnut-ave., who was committed to the county jail on Monday by Justice Davis, as a disorderly person, was released on Saturday from his cell after various interests had obtained the release of a penitent into his hands. Hicks was in the same cell with an Italian prisoner named Troutman.

The latter's screams brought Keeper Ellingham to the cell, and he and his mate, Dr. McHorten, removed the penitent and bound him and sewed up the wounds. Later in the day he was sent to the City Hospital.

NEWARK.

The Democratic members of the Common Council were in caucus at the house of the Jefferson Club until about 2 a.m. yesterday, and agreed upon eleven out of the thirty-five partisan appointments to be made with the help of the vote of the recent Republican Alderman, Wagner. To the latter was promised two appointments as his reward, and he only got one. The principal offices were filled by election at the last meeting of the Council, and the eleven nominated in caucus will be voted on next Friday night. When the appointments are all made, the remaining offices will have been cleaned out of Republican offices, although the Republicans elected one-half the representation in the Common Council.

The date chosen for the reunion of the survivors of the old 1st Excelsior Regiment was April 1, at Newark. Invitations will be sent at the rooms of Lincoln Post, No. 883 Broad-st., which will be open for their reception from 9 a.m. till 7 p.m. Roll will be called at 4:30 p.m. Half an hour later, half an hour before the dinner, Major-General Daniels will arrive to a dinner. Major-General Daniels' speeches will preside and will have something to say to the men who fought under him, and the Lincoln Post Male Quartet will render some old familiar songs. There will be a strong muster of the "old-timers."

ELIZABETH.

P. F. Edwards, president of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, did not, as he promised, have the crow-shooters in "The East" End Gun Club arrested yesterday. Mr. Edwards will let the Grand Jury deal with the offenders. He says the society is determined to make of this a test case. He consulted Mr. Voorhees, counsel for the society, and the latter told him it was clearly unlawful for the club to shoot crows from traps, but it was not against the law to shoot pigeons. Mr. Edwards says the sport of killing crows has been carried on in a cruel manner, the wounded birds being allowed to recover with broken wings and finally die, and he is going to sit it out if the law is worth anything. To this end he will go before the Grand Jury. The Gun Club men say that no just man ever convicted any of them, even though they indicated it was the custom of some in the club to do so.

John Smith, Elizabethport, was speeding his trotter down Morris-ave. last night in a race with John Ryan, who also was a trotter. Ryan lost in the race. He got into trouble with a dog lying in the street. He was hauled out with great force, terribly cut about the head, and his road wagon was completely demolished. The frightened horse ran over a man who had the broken English-tend, cattle, men and river. A word to the wise is sufficient.

THE PRIEST GOES AWAY WITH A PISTOL.

Hazleton, Penn., March 29.—The Rev. Rosario Nasca, an Italian priest, has been threatened with assassination by some of his parishioners, who are excommunicants, and goes armed night and day. Father Nasca was sent here six months ago by Bishop O'Hearn, and has met many difficulties. Some of his people here are of the most degraded class of Italians. A week ago one of them asked the priest to baptize a child, and the priest said he would if the father would help support the Italian Church. The father flew into a passion and threatened to drive the priest out of the country. Two days later a plot for assassinating the priest was discovered. The priest at once armed himself with a revolver and now goes about accompanied by a trusted assistant. Father Nasca says he will stay here as long as he chooses, and fight it necessary.

DR. AGNEW'S PUBLIC BEQUESTS.

MAYOR GLEASON BEGINS HIS DEFENCE.

Philadelphia, March 29.—The will of Dr. D. Hayes was probated today. The appraisement of the estate, it is estimated, will show $250,000. Among the public bequests are to the trustees of the University of Pennsylvania, for the hospital, $50,000; Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church, $4,000; Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church, $4,000, and other small bequests.

FOR A NEW CABINET OFFICER.

Boston, March 29.—The executive council of the Massachusetts State Board of Trade held a special meeting this afternoon. A. W. Simons, for the Paint and Oil Club of New England, presented resolutions to the following effect, which were adopted:

That it is highly important that a new Department, to be known as the Department of Commerce and Trade, should be established by the Congress of the United States on the model of those existing or recently established in Europe, and that all matters affecting commerce and trade shall be referred.

Resolved, That in the interest of administrative economy all officers shall be entitled to seats on the floor of the National House of Representatives without voting power.

OHIO'S SECRETARY OF STATE RESIGNS.

Cincinnati, March 29.—A "Times-Star" dispatch from Columbus, Ohio, says that Secretary of State Daniel J. Ryan has tendered his resignation to Governor McKinley, in order to accept a place as World's Fair Commissioner. It is thought his chief clerk, Mr. McKinney, will be appointed to succeed him.

THE QUAKERS BEAT THE GIANTS.

Richmond, Va., March 29.—(Special)—The largest crowd which ever witnessed a game at Mayo-land, with one exception, turned out yesterday, with the exception that the two great and Philadelphia teams, which the New-Yorkers were not in a playing humor, and they never did play.

The New-Yorkers were not in a playing humor, and they never did play, yet the New-Yorkers had hand enough to win an ordinary game. The Giants leave for Boston Saturday, April 1, and return to New York Sunday evening.

The New-York Transfer Company will call for and check baggage from cars and residences through to Boston.
